

Coree Cuff Lonergan

CEO/General Manager Broward County
Transportation Department Broward County,
Florida

Coree Cuff Lonergan is a seasoned executive with extensive experience in field operations, complex negotiations, and top line growth strategies. With experience in four major industries -- transportation, energy, engineering services and health care, Coree has been a trailblazer for change and credited with sustainable bottom-line improvements. As an innovative leader, Coree has held positions in both the private and public sectors, has voluntarily served on several nonprofit boards and is an ongoing advocate for education.

Coree has worked for three Fortune 500 companies, CSX, Exelon Energy, and Fluor Daniel, holding management and executive leadership positions. In addition to these private sector assignments, Coree has worked for the fifth largest public transportation company in the United States, the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA), in Philadelphia, PA. In her various roles, Coree has led large, multidisciplinary, high performing teams with over 1,400 employees and has had budget accountabilities for well over $700 million.

Coree is currently the CEO/General Manager of Transportation for Broward County, where she leads a team of over 1,300 transportation employees, serving the needs of 2.1 million Broward County Residents through dedicated bus routes, community service shuttles, and Paratransit. Her team just launched the PREMO plan that will provide 200 miles of new premium transit service in Broward County. She joins Broward County from Metro in Washington, DC.

Coree is a natural leader who leads with kindness and assertiveness and believes that customers and employees should be at the center of every decision.
